(OKLAHOMA CITY)—At first glance, it may be hard to distinguish a connection between Oklahoma City and the West African nation of Liberia. But the bond between the two could help change lives around the world.

My Heart's Appeal (MHA), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is hosting its 4th Annual Benefit Fundraiser Dinner Thursday, February 11, 2016, at Church of the Servant in Oklahoma City.

The event is designed to help raise funds to create a campus in Liberia, West Africa, where teenagers and adults with intellectual disabilities can train, work and be productive.

Attendees of the benefit dinner will enjoy food, friendship, information, as well as a gallery walk, donation drawing and special entertainment.

Lovetie Major, M. Ed. founded My Heart's Appeal in 1996 to create more opportunities for people with disabilities like her sister Titema, who has Down syndrome. Major hopes to raise $300,000 to purchase 100 acres of land in Liberia.

In conjunction with the fundraiser, the North Oklahoma City Rotary Club has partnered with MHA for a 15,000 friends, $20 international challenge. If 15,000 people each donated $20, My Heart's Appeal would reach its goal in the land fund drive and help create the campus that will provide vocational, occupational and residential needs for the individuals it serves.
