

• Since 1933 serving Bethany, Warr Acres and Northwest OKC • Weekender, Feb 1-3, 2013 • 75 cents •

CHAMBER BANQUET | 8B

SCHOOL BOARD SHOWDOWN | 5A

Gregory Juedeman

Bren Smith

Feb. 12 vote could furnish iPads for PC students

Barbara Anderson
Staff Writer
"The bond issue is all about technology for learning," Putnam City Superintendent Paul Hurst told patrons gathered at Western Oaks Elementary School Jan. 24 other tool in the hands of teachers. It opens up the world for students. We feel this is important for our learners," he said. "We are training kids for jobs not even thought of yet. This project, ambitious as it may be, will have significant

Chamber board sworn in at 'Evening of Accolades'

8B | THE TRIBUNE, WEEKENDER, FEBRUARY 1-3, 2013

Evening of Accolades

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

- New Member of the Year — Lilygrass Flowers & Decor
- Membership Growth Award — Mike Crandall
- Volunteer of the Year — Lovetie Major
- Ambassador of the Year — Nancy Morgan
- Leadership in Action Award — Chris Reed
- Vision Award - Outstanding Small Business — Running Wild Catering
- Business of the Year — Oklahoma Fidelity Bank
- Chairman's Award — Jim Benson
- Hall of Honor — Jane Haskin

Lovetie Major, Volunteer of the Year, congratulated by Gary Mercer

Todd Krout, senior vice president of First Bethany Bank; Kai Gerkey, marketing director at Deaconess Hospital; Miranda Taylor; Michael Taylor; Gary Mercer, Mercer Adams Funeral Service and Sunni Mercer