Lovetie Major in A Chance to Learn tells a heart touching story about the journey of Titema, her sister and her struggles and triumphs of overcoming the obstacles of having a Down Syndrome in Liberia, West Africa. It speaks to the possibilities that every child can learn if given the opportunity, the right vocational skills and training, along with a healthy dose of love and encouragement.

It will lead you on a journey of understanding of one Sister's love, commitment and vow to enrich her sibling's life by providing her with an opportunity to learn.
