

March 21st marks the 11th anniversary of World Down Syndrome Day (WDS), which is a global awareness day and is officially observed by the United Nations and sponsored by Down Syndrome International of the United Kingdom. The date signifies the uniqueness of the triplication (trisomy) of chromosome 21. This is the fourth for Liberia and My Heart's Appeal, Inc. is honored to be representing, The Republic of Liberia.

Activities includes a fun fest day in support of people with Down syndrome, group awareness campaign and informational gathering, a buddy walk and MHA Special Exhibition Games: Together We Can Win.

Everyone Can Be Productive, If Given A Chance. We Want That Opportunity!

We want to get people talking about WDS on 21 March. Down Syndrome International invites everyone across the world to wear LOTS OF SOCKS to raise awareness on (WDS). We can do this if we all wear socks...BUT NOT JUST ANY SOCKS... brightly colored socks, long socks, printed socks, 1 sock...maybe even 3 socks for 3 chromosomes. If you don't normally wear socks then wear them. AND WHY STOP AT SOCKS? Wear brightly colored clothing if you like and invite all your friends, family and colleagues to do the same.
