“My Heart's Appeal for the Intellectually Disabled”, has been approved to become an official project of The Advance, the designated giving program of The United Methodist Church. The Advance project number is “3022086”.

There are four ways how gifts can be sent through The Advance:

By Church Offering: Donors can make check payable to their local Methodist church. Write the name My Heart's Appeal and the Advance code number 3022086 on the check. Drop the gift in any United Methodist church offering plate or give the gift to their church treasurer, so that the church and annual conference will get Advance credit.

By Phone: Credit card gifts can be accepted by phone. The telephone number is: 888-252-6174

By Mail: Donors can make checks payable to ADVANCE GCFA. Write in the memo section 3022086 My Heart's Appeal. Send your check to:

Advance GCFA
P.O. Box 9068
New York, NY 10087-9068

Give Online: Donors can give directly to www.umcmmission.org/give. Enter project name My Heart's Appeal for the Intellectually Disabled or number 3022086.

As an Advance project, MHA has a webpage on the Global Ministries website. We also have mission opportunities and welcome mission teams to visit our establishment and participate in Liberia. ## Alfred Y. Telewoda Sr. Education Endowment Fund

Alfred, a strong advocate for education encouraged all of his children to attain the highest education opportunities afforded to them. He was a devoted husband and family man. He maintained his family and instilled work ethics and love amongst his children. He encouraged all of them to be their brothers' keeper. Titema, the second to the last of the children was born with Down syndrome and an intellectual disability.

The Alfred Telewoda Endowment Fund is managed by <http://okumf.org/>, The Oklahoma United Methodist Foundation. The Endowment Fund draws only interest, never on principal. In this way we provide every person, and principally our target group, the protection of understanding a little about their prospect...that there will always be My Heart's Appeal, Inc. (MHA).

Gifts take many forms including appreciated assets such as stock, naming Alfred Telewoda Endowment Fund as the beneficiary of a life insurance policy or retirement account, a bequest through one's will or trust, or by making a direct cash contribution to Account 2360 Alfred Telewoda Endowment Fund by mail or <https://okumf.org/services/online-giving/>. ☘

CEO's Reflections...

Lovetie Major, M.ED
MHA CEO

MHA- Liberia team visits,
prays and sympathizes
with mother

I give thanks to God for the many blessings and opportunities to serve “special” individuals in society; here in the USA and now in Liberia. Society has categorized individuals with special needs; but I say they are not special, but reside in our communities to remind us that “if” it was not for the mercy of God’s Grace we would also have been born more depended on others, all or most of our lives as well. Oh, how often we forget about “God’s Grace” and being our brothers’ keeper.

At funerals I have observed and heard people lament for different reasons over the loss of a loved one. Though sad it was to receive the news in March 2015 that one of our babies with Down syndrome died in his second year, it brought a smile to my face to know that MHA made a difference in his short lifespan. We want to thank all MHA sponsors who helped and provided the flowers through their contributions to MHA programs allowing the family to smell the fragrance and enjoy the aroma when their son was alive.

As a special education teacher and sibling of a Down syndrome sister, I was told many times that I set my expectation for them too high for achievement. Likewise, I am still being told that it will be impossible to reach our $300,000.00 goal of land fund drive. I am reminded of the quote “The true sign of intelligence is not knowledge but imagination”- Albert Einstein. They rose up to the challenge and met every objective I set before them and attained them by repetition and determination.

I invite you to imagine with me the possibilities that await this revolutionary change for Liberia and West Africa: the time when our target group will stand in the Chapel at the entrance of the campus with their voices echoing in the distance, singing praises without being laughed at or told “don’t sit by me”; when you are served as guest by our Commercial Hub; when satellite distance learning and teacher exchanges are made possible, offering in-service in special education for the first time in our Teacher Training Hub; when individuals sleep for the first time in beds called their own in the Residential Hub; when Special Olympics regional games are held at our Recreational Hub; and when individuals are given the opportunity to be productive, earn an honest income and be a contributing member of society in the Connie Thrash McGoodwin Vocational Training Hub.

“First they ignore you, then they laugh at you, then they fight you, then you win.” -Mahatma Gandhi

The $300,000.00 land fund drive cost covers the land, cornerstone, probate deed, surveying, clearing and securing the property location. MHA facilities are now temporary housed in the family compound of Lovetie Major in Liberia

A Message from Dr. Arthur Richardson Chair, MHA Board of Directors

How would you describe a gift? I don't mean the kind of gift at Christmas or a Birthday party...but the kind of gift that comes to My Heart's Appeal in support of our mission. To us...

A gift is like...

An Angel... one of God's Messengers
An affirmation of a vision
Evidence of servanthood
A seedling of promise
A cornerstone for the future to come.

Consider, for example, the gift from Al and Nancy Williams that restored the bakery to a working enterprise. Al and Jere Litchenberg were moved at hearing Lovetie's message and provided funding for a bus fund to bring the children to school safely.

Dale Rogers Training Center's Board recently announced at the February annual dinner they were gifting a produce truck (think "Apple Orchard"!) and a pickup truck. The Woodworth Foundation provided the gift that is bringing sewing machines, an air conditioner and monitors to our computer lab, a powerful generator, a water pump, fire extinguishers to the bakery, and shredders to generate operating income.

Early on I learned that people give to vision. When they see what is possible, what is promising...they plant seeds and lay cornerstones that make mission real. This is the vivid description of gift-giving.

Our vision? Continue purchasing the 100 acres for a campus-like community...then Create 5 Hubs of activity...Vocational Training (jobs), Teacher Training (literacy), Residential (life skills), Commercial (apple orchard and bakery to become self-sustaining) and Recreational (health and well-being).

Thank you for your gift...your message...your servanthood ...your faith in our future. In our mission, we have learned that it is in blessing others we, too, are truly blessed.

MHA Strategic Partnership with the United Methodist Church

Lovetie Major had the honor of meeting with Bishop Robert E. Hayes Jr. (left), episcopal leader of the Oklahoma Conference of the United Methodist Church, where My Heart's Appeal has its headquarter. He gave his blessing to and affirmation of MHA; as a Methodist by religion, with Bishop Hayes as her local spiritual authority, it meant a lot to her as a Christian. At an earlier visit to Liberia in March 2014 (right), where MHA services are rendered, MHA gained the support of the Liberia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church through its leader Bishop John Innis. ☺

MHA Transportation Program

We needed to purchase a bus to help transport students and clients to and from our site. Public transportation is scarce in Liberia and people rely on taxis, motorcycles, or overcrowded buses. For the populace we service at MHA this is a challenge. We hired a local bus daily (Lt) that was costly and not in the best of condition. During a mission team visit (Rt) in 2014 from United Methodist Church of the Servant in Oklahoma City, the group saw the task ahead for the nonprofit serving individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities in Liberia, and it became for them a pursuit of a hopeful future. MHA has a great vision. It is a call to do something heroic, to do something extraordinary. Its vision is focused upon those with special educational needs.

Listening in a Sunday school class as Lovetie Major spoke of the transportation need, Al & Jere Litchenburg of Oklahoma City stepped out in faith and made a generous donation of $8,000.00 towards the transportation program. Their gift has indeed been an inspirational witness and instrumental in encouraging another organization to join in the effort to provide transportation.

Kimberli Brownlee & Leroy Ball

MHA and the Dale Rogers Training Center (DRTC) a center that serves people with disabilities in Oklahoma, joined hands to inform, embrace and impact the life-giving needs of individuals with disabilities during MHA February 2015 benefit dinner. At the event, the DRTC Board President Cheryl Moore and board member Bob Hale surprised the crowd by announcing DRTC had donated two pre-owned box trucks for MHA's use in Liberia and will soon do the same with two vans. Moore stated, "Part of the Dale Rogers' mission is to help educate the public about people with disabilities in the U.S. and around the world. Now with four vehicles to transport to Liberia, we need your support in matching the Litchenburg's gift of hope and inspiration to enable us to ship in the Fall of 2015. 🌟

MHA is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization. It is privately funded and does not receive federal or governmental source funding. We rely solely on contributions from Friends of MHA, fundraising events, and the general public to fund our programs, with funding going directly into our programs. Our Competence Chart: Community & Program Enterprise 92%, Fundraising 3%, & Administration 5%. MHA Online Store and The Annual Giving Sustainable Program was set up to specifically support our programs and some of our operational cost. We ask for your support and trust. Third Party Fundraisers are always welcomed; call and schedule a book signing event and talk with Lovette Major and hear how your contributions are changing the myths in the Liberian society about our precious children. Yes, you are making a difference and changing the course of history! ✪
